About Jackie Joyner-Kersey

Having been named by Sports Illustrated as the 'Greatest Female Athlete of the 20th Century', Jackie Joyner-Kersey's athletic credentials are unquestionably among the best ever, in all of sport. A six time Olympic medalist, including three Olympic gold medals, Joyner-Kersey dominated the Olympic heptathlon and long jump events throughout her career which spanned four Olympic Games.

A former member of the Boys & Girls Club of East St. Louis, Joyner-Kersey has also established herself as a champion of youth, serving as spokesperson for a NIKE initiative that brought sports and fitness to Club kids nationwide. Jackie attributes much of her success to the Boys & Girls Clubs stating, "You always want to feel like you belong. Boys & Girls Clubs help to make that difference."
